Your project on a CT tourist attraction will be due on Friday, May 23, 2008. You will be responsible for note taking and creating an original travel brochure. You may read a book about your place, use travel brochures, or obtain information from the internet. On the day of your oral presentation, you will dress as though you were a guide there and explain your brochure to the class. You may bring in any props that will add to the presentation. We will be inviting your parents to join us the day of your presentation.

Your brochure will include:

1. Title of place and location
2. Hours of operation and admittance cost
3. Pictures and typed explanations of what will be seen there.
4. Explain why this is a significant CT tourist attraction.
5. All Information on the brochure will be typed.

You will be graded on four items for a final grade:

1. Typed Brochure
2. Costume (dress as someone who would work there and tell what job s(he) has)
3. Notes
4. Oral presentation

Your oral presentation will be evaluated on these items:

1. Voice: words pronounced correctly and with good articulation and control.
2. Nonverbal: good posture and helpful facial expressions and gestures.
3. Overall effectiveness: Showed concern for doing a good job and achieved a good, finished performance.
