

Addendum for Connecticut Districts

All terms in this addendum are defined in accordance with Connecticut General Statute 10-234aa through 10-234dd as amended.

1. Student information, student records and student-generated content, as defined in Connecticut Public Act 16-189 are not our property and are not under our control;
2. Upon written request, we will destroy any student information, student records or student-generated content in our possession;
3. We will not use student data for any purposes other than those authorized pursuant to the Terms of Service;
4. Should a parent, legal guardian, or student wish to review personally identifiable information contained in student information, student records or student-generated content and correct erroneous information they may do so via their account or by contacting us at help@seesaw.me;
5. We implement reasonable and appropriate physical, administrative and technical safeguards to protect student information, student records and student-generated content from unauthorized access, destruction, use, modification or disclosure.
  - o Seesaw uses SSL security at the network level to ensure all account information and journal content is transmitted securely.
  - o Account information is stored in highly secure, access-controlled data centers operated by industry leading partners.
  - o All user information is stored redundantly and backed up in geographically distributed data centers.
  - o We have adopted an internal data access policy that restricts access to personally identifiable information to a limited number of employees with a specific business need;
6. In the event of an unauthorized release, disclosure or acquisition of student information, student records or student-generated content, as required by law and in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of CT Public Act 16-189, we will notify a representative designated by the local or regional board of education as practicable, but no later than the time period set forth in Connecticut Public Act 16-189 after we become aware of it;
7. Upon written request by the school or district, student information, student records or student-generated content shall be destroyed unless a student, parent or legal guardian of a student chooses to establish or maintain an electronic account with Seesaw for the purpose of storing student-generated content;
8. Seesaw agrees to use any student personal information provided to it by users in compliance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1988 ("COPPA") and the Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act of 1974 ("FERPA");
9. The Terms of Service will be governed by the internal laws of the State of Connecticut;
10. If any provision of the Terms of Service or the application of the Terms of Service is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the contract which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

11. The Contractor acknowledges and agrees to comply with the above and all other applicable aspects of Connecticut's Student Data Privacy law according to Connecticut General Statutes §§ 10-234aa through 10-234dd.
12. The Parties agree that this Agreement controls over any inconsistent terms or conditions contained within any other agreement entered into by the Parties concerning student data.
